- 2.11 If within this prolongation, both the referees initially designated and those of the neighbouring association fail to arrive at the venue of the match and if the visiting team is accompanied by an international referee, the latter shall officiate with the assistance of two assistant referees registered on the FIFA list of International assistant referees belonging to the host association which will also designate a reserve assistant referee from the list of International assistant referees.

- 2.12 If the visiting team consents, the match can be played at the hour initially scheduled or before the end of the 72 hours with local international referee and international assistant referees designated by the host association.
- 2.13 The new expenses incurred in cases of extension of stay of the visiting team at the venue of the match following the absence or late arrival of the referees, shall be borne by the host association.
- 2.14 The referee tosses a coin to determine the choice between the side and the kick-off; in any case the latter must start on time.
- 2.15 It is established that the absence of the designated referees was the fault of the host association, the host team shall be declared loser by 2 to zero and shall be eliminated from the competition, regardless of the result obtained on the field.

- 3.4 On the eve of the match or in the morning of the day of the match, the commissioner must convene a consultative meeting (technical meeting) of the officials of both teams who must include at least one representative from each national association to whom the two teams belong, with the referees designated for the match. This will be a consultative meeting aimed at underlining and clarifying the main points of the rules governing the competition and ensuring the fulfilment of all the conditions necessary for the regularity of the match (supervision, stay of the referees and the visiting team, proper qualification of the referees on the FIFA list, licenses of the players). In the absence of the regular referees designated by CAF, the commissioner will ensure that the provisions of the present regulations are complied with and will have the match played in conformity with the provisions of the rules. No minutes will be taken of this consultative meeting. Any protest will be noted by the commissioner in his report.
- 3.5 However, a protest presented by a team not accompanied by a representative of the national federation to whom the team in question belongs, will not be taken into consideration by the match commissioner. The commissioner must require during this pre-match meeting, the presence in the stadium of a representative of each Federation to which the opposing teams belong.
- 3.6 In the absence of the match commissioner, the referee designated to officiate the match will preside over the meeting stipulated for, in this present article.
- 3.7 In the case of the absence of the General Coordinator, the match commissioner will attend the pre-match formalities in the dressing rooms. He may, if he deems it necessary, go back to the dressing rooms during the half-time recess or after the match.
- 3.8 The responsibility of ascertaining the regularity of the field's dimensions and practicability, of ascertaining the regular strength of the electric lights for nocturnal matches and of verifying the players' licenses is exclusively that of the referee. The referee and his assistants are the only persons to control all procedures concerning the substitution of players during the match.
- 3.9 The match commissioner may, if he deems it necessary for the security of the referees or the visiting team, decide not to have the match played until his conditions and instructions are carried out. But once the match has started, it is exclusively the prerogative of the referee to suspend or end the match for any of the reasons stipulated in the Laws of the Game.

- 3.10 If any protest concerning one of the Articles of these regulations is submitted by one of the two teams to the commissioner before the start of the match, he must try to reconcile conflicting points of view within the framework of the Rules of the Competition. If, however, he does not succeed, he will register the protest on the appropriate forms and will make sure that the match is played in accordance with the provisions of these regulations, in conformity with the interpretation given by the match commissioner.
- 3.11 The commissioner will observe the match in all its aspects: performance of the referees, the fair play assessment, behaviour of the public, eventual incidents. However, evaluating the performance of the referees is the responsibility of the Referees' Inspector when the latter is designated by CAF.
- 3.12 After the end of the match, the commissioner must send to CAF Secretariat within 48 hours following the match by express mail or by using the software of the competition management system (CMS) the detailed report on the specific form provided by CAF. In case the match commissioner is absent, this duty shall be incumbent upon the referee.
- 3.13 The commissioners who are designated must, as soon as they receive the notification of their designation, confirm to CAF their acceptance to carry out their assignment.
- 3.14 If later on, the commissioners are prevented for one reason or another, from attending the match, they must inform CAF by fax or e-mail within a reasonable time for the Secretariat to provide a replacement. In case of force majeure at the very last minute, the commissioner must send by fax or e-mail his apologies both to the Secretariat and the host country.
- 3.15 The absence of the commissioner cannot constitute an obstacle to the playing of the matches at the scheduled date and time. The commissioner cannot be replaced except by decision of CAF and in such circumstances the Organising Committee's decisions shall be based on the referee's match report.
- 3.16 The host association must inform the designated commissioner of the date, venue of the match and kick off time on the same time when the host informs CAF in conformity with the regulatory delays. It shall organise his trip, his stay and transport facilities until his departure. It shall ensure that an endorsable airplane ticket reaches him 72 hours after the designations are communicated at the latest.

3.17 If in this delay, the commissioner does not receive the air-plane ticket, he will be authorized to purchase his air-plane ticket and to travel to the venue of the match. In this case, the host association must pay to CAF a fine of three thousand US Dollars (3000$) as well as the refund to the commissioner the cost of the ticket as well as his sojourn expenses and a daily indemnity at the rate fixed by CAF scheme.

3.18 If the absence of the match commissioner is due to a failure from the host association to observe the regulations:

- a) No contestation raised by the Host Association shall be taken into consideration.
- b) The Host Association shall pay a fine of five thousand US Dollars (5000$) without prejudice to subsequent sanctions which can be imposed upon it by CAF Organising Committee.
